WORLD FUNDING

CERTIFICATION PROJECT

JALAPÃO NETWORK

TOCANTINS
GOVERNO DO ESTADO

NATURATINS

Pedra Furada/Jalapão

WHAT IS WORLD FUNDING?

The company is responsible for creating an interface between environmental projects in Brazil and the global market. With the mission of promoting and certifying these social, environmental, and humanitarian projects.

Serra da Catedral/TO

Buriti (Mauritia flexuosa)

Crafts made with golden grass

Jatobá (Hymenaea courbaril)

Capim Dourado (Syngonanthus nitens)

WHAT IS THE JALAPÃO NETWORK?

Project regulated by the NATURE INSTITUTE OF TOCANTINS (NATURATINS) in charge of promoting the sustainable use of natural resources from the Cerrado biome by supporting agro-extractive families of traditional communities living in the Jalapão region.

WORLD FUNDING

WHAT IS THE WORLD FUNDING CERTIFICATE?

The standards for the certification of this project cover concepts such as ecosystem conservation, wildlife protection, fair treatment of collaborators, and good working conditions. To receive the certification, the participant must meet the requirements of excellence established by World Funding.

WORLD FUNDING

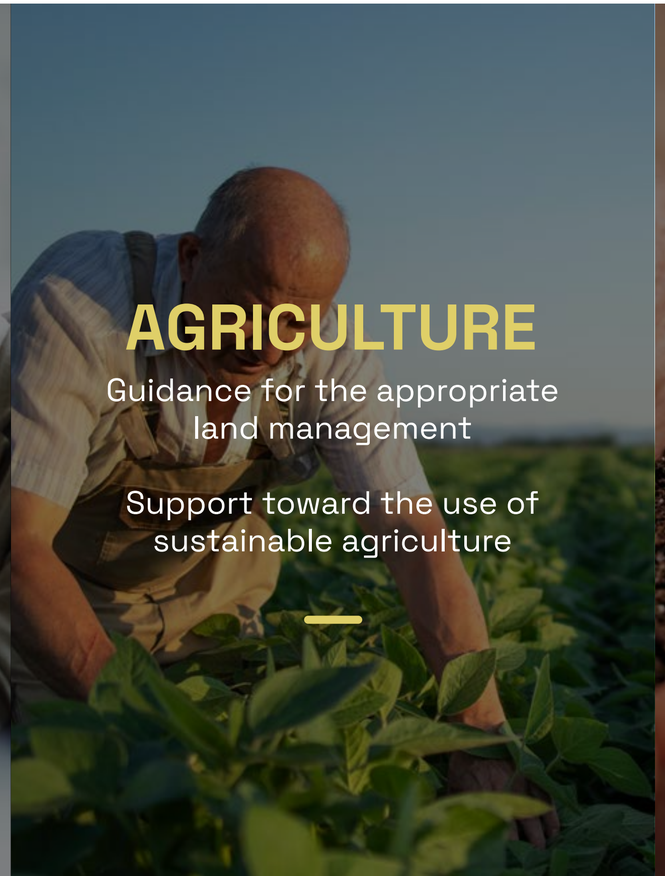

CRITERIA OF GOOD PRACTICES

This certification will recognize the Network Jalapão from the evaluation of the following criteria of best practices:

MANAGEMENT

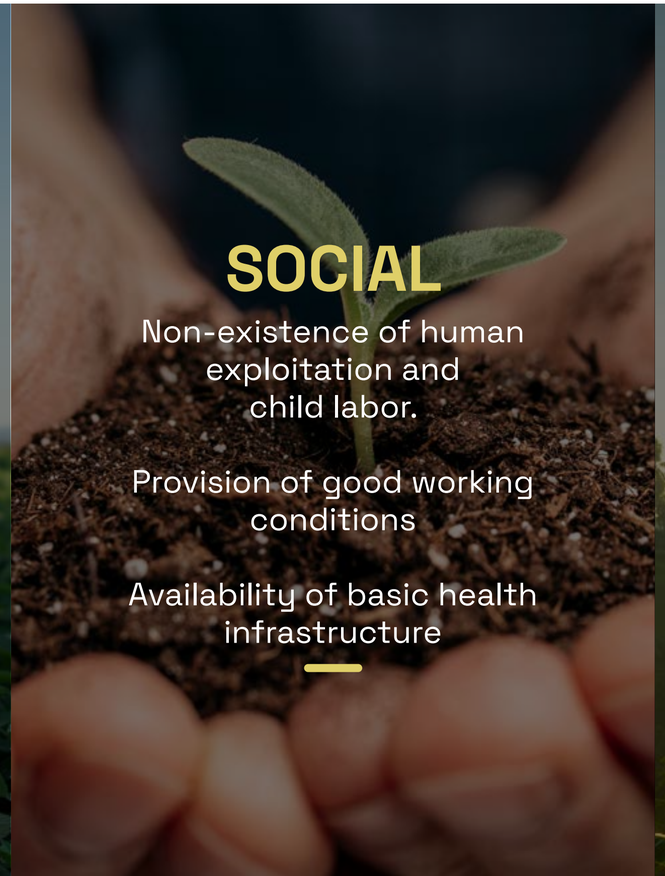

Availability of complaint mechanisms and request for support

AGRICULTURE

Guidance for the appropriate land management

Support toward the use of sustainable agriculture

SOCIAL

Non-existence of human exploitation and child labor.

Provision of good working conditions

Availability of basic health infrastructure

ENVIRONMENT

Compliance with national environmental standards

Compliance with state legislation

Support toward reforestation efforts

Existence of a qualified structure for the prevention and appropriate use of fires

Existence of guidance and structure toward proper disposal of waste

WORLD
FUNDING

TOCANTINS
GOVERNO DO ESTADO

NATURATINS